

2016 Supply List

7th Grade

assignment book

pocket dictionary

marble composition notebooks (one for each subject)

two-pocket folders (one for each subject) loose leaf paper (no large binders)

black or blue ballpoint pens

2 pencils sharpened with good erasers and sharpener

pencil case

yellow highlighter

metric/standard ruler protractor

compass

scientific calculator

paper or cloth covers on all textbooks paper or clear contact covers on all workbooks crayons or colored pencils safety scissors

book bag

Math and ELA Practice work for Incoming 7th Graders

7th Grade Summer 2016 Practice Work

Math

- 1) Students should be proficient in operations involving integers (adding, subtracting, multiplying and dividing positive/negative numbers)
- 2) Students should be proficient in operations involving fractions
- 3) Students should be proficient in operations involving decimals
- 4) Students should be able to Write, read, and evaluate expressions in which letters stand for numbers.
- 5) Students should be able to fluently add, subtract, multiply, and divide multi-digit decimals using the standard algorithm

Language Arts

- 1) Students should be able identify words used as different parts of speech
- 2) Students should be able to identify the different types of sentences
- 3) Students should be able to identify the complete subject/predicate of a sentence
- 4) Students should be able to identify the simple subject/predicate of a sentence
- 5) Students should be able to identify nouns, pronouns, verbs, adverbs and adjectives in sentences.